Trinity Tidings

Walk hope, walk peace, walk joy;
God bless you in the walking.
Share faith, share mercy, share love;
God bless you in the sharing.
Live calm, live courage, live compassion;
God bless you in the living.
Be just, be humble, be kind;
God bless you in the being.
Do right, do well, do curious;
God bless you in the doing.
Amen.

Bishop Deon K. Johnson

Trinity Activities

Requiem or Renaissance?

What? A) Music for a funeral? B) Lectures in art and literature? C) A new understanding of R&R?

No—None of the above!

Requiem or Renaissance is a diocesan program for congregations invite by the Bishop to dig deeply into who they are, where they've been, and where they're going—all in response to God's call to share God's mission in the world.

When you consider the ministries of Trinity Church, those in which you participate and others that you know about—worship services, acolytes, altar guild, laundry love, Bible study, Vestry, stewardship, outreach, small groups, etc.—are they a Dread, a Duty, or a Joy? Next week, we'll make charts!

The Feast of All Saints

November 3, 2024

If you have someone who passed since Nov. 5, 2023, please let us know, so that we can be sure to include them in the list for remembrance this year.

You can email us at trinityepiscopal318@yahoo.com or add their name to the list which will be made available in the reception area of the church.

"Graceful Exit"

As you know our beloved Rector, Tamsen Whistler will be retiring after the first of the year. To help support Tamsen and our Church Family we have developed a Graceful Exit Team.

We took a group of our family that has been supporting Tamsen for quite a few years now and expanded it so we can better support Tamsen and support you, our Church Family through this upcoming transition period.

.We will be communicating more in the very near future, so stand by! If you have any questions please do not hesitate to ask either myself, Donna Oseicki, Gary McKiddy, Erin Shetler, Rebecca Jones, David McCune or Barbara Parks.

Sincerely,
Phil Jeffery
Senior Warden
